The Society of Wood Engravers

Following the government's announcement on 23rd March 2020, the Society of Wood Engravers will not be taking any orders until further notice.

Prints and all other items from the SWE's range are delivered using Royal Mail, and at this time it is vital that the postal network remains operational for the delivery of essential items. It is our collective responsibility to stop all non-essential activity and we should not expect others to take risks on our behalf. Therefore :

- Please do not send through any new orders or make any payments.
- If you have a current order with SWE, we will contact you about this.

We thank you for all your support and interest in the activities of the SWE and its members and exhibitors, and look forward to resuming normal operation when circumstances allow.
